ALL SORTS.

—Confidence still climbs.
—Lung Protectors at Thaxter's Drug Store.
—The weather is swinging round our way again.
—The State Prison Yard will be lighted by electricity.
—Ed. DeAnna is still in Carson, a guest of Will Davis.
—The Electric Light Company are stringing their wires along Carson Street.
—Fairbanks of the Lyon County Times, is nursing a game leg at the Hot Springs.

—On Sunday last the wife of Tremmor Coffin presented him with a daughter. Coffin is too bunged up with rheumatics, however, to enjoy it.

—Postmaster White wishes the public to be notified that all letters dropped on the cars after Postoffice hours are delayed a day at Steamboat, and do not go with the regular mail.

—The next session of the Legislature will have to make some arrangements by which county roads can be kept in order. The old laws will cease operating with this year and no substitutes have been provided.

—No other medicine is so reliable as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, for the cure of coughs, colds, and all derangements of the respiratory organs. It relieves the asthmatic and consumptive, even in advanced stages of disease.

—“My little son, three years of age, was terribly afflicted with scrofula. His head was entirely covered with scrofulous sores, and his body showed many marks of the disease. A few bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla cured him.”—W. K. Becket, Hymera, Ind.

—Several locations have been made on the newly discovered ledge, which extend beyond the Sugar Loaf mountain. The ledge goes into the mountain on the Southwest side, and comes out again on the Northeast. Chadic and Bigler brought some ore down from there a few days ago, which was rich in free gold.

—The District Attorney of Eureka county is said to be preparing to prosecute the participants in the outrage perpetrated on the person of P. Paroni, who was tarred and papered last month for an alleged assault on a 14-year-old girl. A number of prominent residents of the town of Eureka are said to have suddenly been called away on pressing business in California since steps were taken for indicting them.

—A story comes from Honolulu that after Queen Kapiolani and her daughter got home from their recent trip to Europe they caused to be put into the shop windows pictures of themselves taken in London in the superb court costumes that they had bought in Paris. A native mob passed resolutions denouncing this breach of Sandwich Island customs as to clothing, visited all the shops where the pictures were displayed, destroyed the portraits and then went to the palace and demanded that the costumes themselves be delivered to them. The royal ladies had to yield, and saw the triumph of Worth torn in pieces by the mob. A promise was then exacted that the Queen and princess hereafter would wear only the native costume and the mob broke up.

Strictly True.

In all the great mining, railroad and other enterprises in the Western part of the State, Sharon for nearly twenty years was the leading spirit. He had friends and deserved them, because he was always devoted to those who were close to him. He never made a big deal in Comstock shares that a host of his intimates did not get rich. The same has not been true of the Comstock since Sharon stepped down from the supreme control.—Eureka Sentinel.

The above is true of Sharon as all old timers will remember. There has never been a big mining deal since Sharon lost his grip on the ledge, and it is our humble opinion that there will never be at least not while the public hold any stock.

THE LAW DEFIED.

Henry Henderson, the Bay-isher of Estelle Jose, Be- turns to Reno.

Henry Henderson, the negro expressman, who was recently ordered out of the State by county officials, after it was found that the law was powerless to punish him for an alleged rape on the person of Estelle Jose, returned to Reno this morning for the purpose, it is stated, of taking his children to California, where he will in future reside. When he was kindly escorted to the California line by county officials and ordered to leave the State forever, it was thought that the fear of violence at the hands of an outraged community would deter him from ever polluting the soil of Nevada again with his presence. His return shows an utter lack of sense or a total disregard for the law and the people. When they failed to convict him, almost any other people on the Coast would have taken the question up, and punish him as he so richly deserves to be. The Jose family have been driven from their home, a young girl but fifteen years old, ruined for life, a community of parents outraged, and the law defied, by a man known to be dishonest, who boastingly says, so it is stated, that he “sees no reason why he can't live here again, as he don't propose to tamper with white girls any more.” There is a time when patience ceases to be a virtue, and to judge from the talk to be heard on the streets to-day, that time has about arrived in Reno. It is stated on good authority that the victim of this colored brute's lust stated after the trial, that when Henderson was endeavoring to persuade her to submit to him, he said that she would do no more than what a number of other girls, her playmates, had allowed him to do. This is from a credible source.

Unless Henderson should depart to-night—and if he does he should not be allowed to take his step-daughter with him, if all accounts are true—the authorities should again arrest him and endeavor by a second trial to convict him. He was released on his own recognizance, it being understood that he leave the State never to return; he has broken his parole, defied the law, and now complacently looks upon the ruin he has wrought, and conducts himself as though he had, in so doing, performed an act which should meet with praise instead of blame. If Henderson is wise, and the Gazette hopes that it will not again be liable for contempt in so saying, he will leave town at his earliest convenience.—Gazette.

The Artesian Mining Co.

On Monday evening the parties interested in the ore discovery made in the bottom of the artesian well near the North Carson hill, met at the Ormsby House parlors and formed a company to be known as The Artesian Mill and Mining Company, with its office and principal place of business in Carson City, Nev. The following officers were elected:

Richard Kirman, President; Geo. Hawkins, Vice President; S. P. Davis, Secretary; Bullion & Exchange Bank, Treasurer.

The following comprise the Board of Directors: Richard Kirman, Evan Williams, George McLoughlin and George Hawkins, all of Carson City, and George Keogh, of New York.

A contract was let to Messrs. McLoughlin & Hawkins to sink a three-inch tube to the ledge, at a point 300 feet East of the spot where the original strike was made, in order to more thoroughly determine the extent and value of the find.

Should paying ore be found at this point a regular timbered shaft will be sunk and hoisting works be erected.

Syrup of Figs

Is Nature's true laxative. It is the most easily taken, and the most effective remedy known to cleanse the system when Bilious or Costive; to dispel Headaches, Colds, and Fevers; to Cure Habitual Constipation, Indigestion, Piles, etc. Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Company, San Francisco, Cal. For sale by George C. Thaxter, agent Carson.

MARYSVILLE'S LEPROSY CASE.

Third Unsuccessful Attempt at Suicide of the Afflicted Barber.

MARYSVILLE, Cal., Feb. 14.—J. O. Cousins, the mulatto barber, afflicted with leprosy, made another unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide yesterday by cutting the veins of his arm. This is the third effort at suicide. He constantly dreams that he will take his own life. He suffers little, but is utterly dejected. The case is pronounced by physicians a classical example of leprosy, showing a marked leonine expression of countenance and hypertrophy of the whole skin.

A Novel Sight.

The Mountain Home Range and Valley says: A novel sight was witnessed at Robison's Ferry, on Snake river, one day last week just after the breaking up of the ice. First was observed a cow standing on a large section of ice floating rapidly down stream; then in a few minutes followed a deer, solitary and alone, on another chunk, and lastly followed a large steer with his body in the water and his under jaw resting on a slab of ice, with fear depicted in his eyes. They were all headed for a warm climate and probably reached the Pacific ocean ere this—dead or alive.

Skinning Frozen Sheep and Cattle.

A private letter received from Hamilton, Nev., yesterday, reports the sheep-growers Lockinwood and Davis to have lost about 1,500 head in the storm. They have a considerable force of men digging the carcasses out of the snow and skinning them. Numerous other sheep and cattle owners are also reported as skinning large numbers of dead animals. Losses in many sections are estimated at from 25 to 50 per cent, and it is thought that this is about an average of the entire state.

The Most Agreeable

As well as the most effective method of dispelling Headaches, Colds, and Fevers, or Cleansing the System, is by taking a few doses of the pleasant California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. For sale by Geo. C. Thaxter, agent.

Replaced the Loss.

Yesterday the APPEAL office was in receipt of a brand new type-writer from State Treasurer George Tuffy, to replace the one he sat down on and spoiled last week. Mr. Tuffy has a heart as large as the balance of his body.

Leg Broken.

WINNEMCCA, February 12th.—This forenoon Fred Muller, Jr., a stockman, had his left leg broken below the knee by his horse falling upon him. Both bones were broken and the flesh lacerated.
